"Few books exist that take the concept of leadership for college-aged students and boil it down to three discernable yet interrelated components. —KEVIN W. BAILEY, vice president for student affairs and program coordinator, College Student Affairs Administration Program, University of West Florida

"The concepts presented here are essential as students become balanced leaders who are driven by responsibility, integrity, and a desire to build relationships among those they serve."

—LEAH K. EICKHOFF, program development coordinator, Alpha Sigma Alpha

"As we continue to develop the next generation of leaders, we need more resources aimed at helping us understand the 'why' behind our actions, the nuances that make each of us unique and special human beings. This ability to understand others, in addition to ourselves, provides the foundation for everything else we do in leadership development."
