Unveiled Threat: A Personal Experience of Fundamentalist Islam and the Roots of Terrorism (Inside Observer Volume 1) By Janet M. Tavakoli

The Clash of Civilizations

In her heart-rending memoir, Janet Tavakoli bears witness to the incompatibility of Western values and fundamentalist Islam. In 1978, she lived in Tehran with her Iranian husband when the Shah's secular regime was overthrown in a violent revolution. She fled the Islamic Republic of Iran and studied the expansion of fundamentalist Islam along with the spread of terrorism promoted by religious leaders at the highest echelons in the Middle East.

In 1993, she worked in the World Trade Center complex when terrorists detonated a bomb in the parking garage of the North Tower. On 9/11, she watched the news from London as terrorist plane hijackers destroyed the World Trade Center's Twin Towers in New York.

Tavakoli takes us on a brisk tour of the conflicts and intricacies in the Islamic world to give us a clear view what comes next for the East and West.

Review

Praise for Unveiled Threat

"Tavakoli turns her fire from crony capitalists to Muslim fundamentalists."

Think Advisor (Research Magazine)

"This is a book that everyone who loves and wishes to support women should read."

Washington's Blog

Praise for Janet Tavakoli

"Janet Tavakoli knows her stuff, has strong opinions, and turns a colorful quote."

Financial Times

From the Author

I loved the challenge of writing this book. One editor remarked: "The result is a short riveting book with a clear high-impact message at an important time for the Middle East, the West, and in particular, the United States."

Unveiled Threat has already evoked strong emotions and attracted detractors who admittedly made up their minds without reading the book. I hope that will not dissuade you from reading it and making up your own mind.
