About the Author

Bruce Greer studied composition and theory at Baylor University where he received a Bachelor of Music degree. Following college, he spent many years as a Creative Director for a major publisher. He currently spends his time writing choral and orchestral works for most major publishers. He also has a concert ministry as a singer/songwriter/pianist, which takes him across the country and around the world. Bruce has numerous piano recordings with various companies. He is a native Texan and resides in a suburb of Dallas with his wife and four sons. The late Otis Skillings was a widely respected musician, arranger, composer, orchestra conductor, concert pianist, workshop clinician, and lecturer. He first came to prominence in the early 1970's with his trend-setting musicals LIFE and LOVE. Among his original songs are favorites like The Bond of Love and Lord, We Praise You. His music has been featured at the world conventions of many denominations and his songs appear in many leading hymnals. Otis' work has been performed in the White House and at the Democratic National Conventions. He won numerous musical honors on city, state, and national levels. Prior to his death in 2004, he directed the Sunday morning music and worship at Temple Baptist Church in Rockford, Illinois.
