Editorial Review

Review

The chapter on teaching was especially interesting to me. It will help me avoid mistakes, and gives me confidence... -- Vicki Carter, Toronto, Canada

This book is easy to follow with a wealth of information on how to get started on making paper tole your business. -- Kerry Manuala, Los Angeles, CA

About the Author

Dee Overduin is a resident of Lake Charles, Louisiana. She was born in the Netherlands, and raised in Canada. She became a certified General Accountant in 1976 and received the prestigious Merit Award. She held top positions in Canadian agricultural and automotive corporations.

In 1985 she traded the high-pressure financial world of big business for the chance to turn her hobby of paper tole into a viable business enterprise. She immediately saw the potential of the Internet and created an extensive web site to promote her paper tole business, The Tole Way.

In Commerce, Texas, Ms. Overduin operated a storefront in a local mall. She also graduated with an MBA from Texas A & M University there, and studied Spanish by attending Spanish Language Schools in Spain.

She has taught paper tole to hundreds of students over the past 15 years, and her web site generates business from all over the world.
