Is the Long Island Medium the Real Deal? By Kirby Robinson

Long Island Medium is the hit reality show starring Theresa Caputo as a brassy Hicksville, New York housewife, mother and medium. Each week the audience watches her deliver messages from the dearly departed who tell their loved ones they are safe and at peace. But are they really? In this groundbreaking new book, Is the Long Island Medium the Real Deal?, author and demonologist Kirby Robinson examines her claims of mediumship and what's on The Other Side. The author succeeds in raising many doubts as he asks: - Who is Spirit? - What are cold readings? - Are mediums dangerous? - What is the Christian view on mediums and communicating with the dead? - Who taught Theresa to do readings and what are the teacher's qualifications? - What is really on The Other Side? Theresa joins the growing list of questionable mediums and psychics like John Edwards, Sylvia Browne, and James Van Praagh. These individuals charge hundreds of dollars for readings that are inaccurate and misleading. And none of them can withstand spiritual or scientific scrutiny. By the time the reader finishes this book, they will never view the subject of mediumship and communication with dead in the same way.
