It's A Mitzvah is this year's Apple of Jewish books: clean, well-conceived and as user-friendly as a Mac. Artson's primary focus is not on the why but the how of being Jewish. Laid out in a highly graphic style full of sidebars and photos, the book offers readers clear ideas on how to begin or increase Jewish observance.

Hundreds of simple Jewish practices can be incorporated into everyday life without problem: from buying Israeli products to affixing a mezuzah, this covers all and includes plenty of black and white photos. -- Midwest Book Review

What makes this book particularly important are Rabbi Artson's detailed suggestions for incorporating Jewish practices into one's life.
