Not illustrated. 1860 Excerpt: ... to England, what for God's sake are-they gone to do there? I cannot imagine because I know them. Capt'n-Dawson wishes to stay with me for some time. If we find something to do I shall send him forward to O Woronzoff. I repeat my most sincere gratitude for all what you have done in consequence of my application to you on account of my brother-in-law. I am not less obliged to Lord Cathcart for his kind reception of my request and his disposition to render me that kind of service, to which alone I can be sensible in this, for me, so wretched world. I am, my dear Sir, Your most faithful and affectionate T. C. TCHICHAGOW. No. 23. Lord Holland To Sir Robert Wilson. DEAR WILSON, Holland House, 20th July, 1825. I never read anything with greater interest and delight than your Memoranda. They were new as well as instructive to me, for though they were not necessary to convince me of your zeal, courage, and generosity, yet till I had read them I had no notion of your having had such opportunities of performing such great services, of your having so successfully performed them, and having forborne so frequently and so nobly to taunt both our own and foreign governments with the base ingratitude with which they have treated you. Do you mean to print the MS. or any part of it; and if not, would you allow me to take a copy of it? I keep it till you answer. Yours ever truly, Vassall Holland. No. 24. Count Lcdolf To Sir Robert Wilson. MON CHER GENERAL, Constantinople, 27 9bre, 1812.
