Editorial Review

About the Author

Manuel De Cortes has always had a passion for learning foreign languages, which is complemented by his frequent travelling around the world. He feels that it is a good way to discover yourself and your purpose in life. It can also be a learning experience, and offers you lessons that you won't get in a school setting. Manuel finds it to be a very rewarding experience, and it is a good way to open your mind to new experiences and different cultures. Learning a new language breaks the barrier between two people from two cultures, and builds an understanding between them. It also builds relationships as well. Manuel's passion for the foreign tongue has taken him all over the world, and he has met some interesting people. It has made his life richer and full of memorable moments. In addition, it has helped Manuel get around easier while travelling, and he is able to communicate with the locals. He finds that he is able to communicate more effectively with people from other countries, and he has attained a certain level of respect from them. It gives his life purpose and it keeps him driven, while he is pursuing his passion. Learning new languages provides Manuel with an understanding of the world around him, as well as the customs all over the world. It has made travelling much more enjoyable for him, and it has helped him delve deep into the cultures that surround him. Moreover, as a person who has done lots of travelling, Manuel feels that it has also helped him appreciate his own culture, and develop an understanding of it. He feels that it is important to be competent in speaking foreign languages, because communication and business is bringing countries closer together. Because of this, Manuel De Cortes decided to share his way of loving languages so that others, too, can easily gain rich experiences while travelling and knowing better other countries. Thanks for reading! Manuel De Cortes
