Sweet Home By Carys Bray

They say there's no place like home. It's where the heart is...

Meet the little boy who believes in miracles.

Meet the mother who loves to bring babies home from the newborn aisle of her supermarket.

Meet the husband who carves a longed-for baby out of ice as a gift for his wife.

Meet the widow who is reminded of romance whilst pegging out the washing.

Awarded the Scott Prize for shorty story writing, Sweet Home weaves together moments of joy, heartache, sadness and unwavering love as told through seventeen very different notions of home.

Editorial Review

Review

Bray has an uncanny ability for capturing children on the page. Nothing is saccharine. Sentiment is negated beautifully by the everyday. -- Sarah Schofield

About the Author

Carys was brought up in a strict Mormon family. In her early thirties she replaced religion with writing and achieved a distinction for her MA collection of short stories. Carys is working on a PhD and a novel. She lives in Southport with her husband and four children.
