Baker's Dozen By Allison Fuller

Baker's Dozen is an erotic romance set in New York City. If the way to a man's heart was through his stomach, she'd be married by now – but on the cusp of thirty, Victoria Mason is still single. She tells herself she has everything she needs – a thriving bakery, a wonderful son, great friends. A good life. But she watches through the pass-through of her kitchen every morning as customers come and go, waiting for that one particular face to wander in. Mr. 8:15, Gavin Bailey, dark roast with room and a mini pie to-go as he flirts with the girl behind the counter. He's a bright spot in a life that has become increasingly monotonous. She knows nothing about him beyond his easy smile and his usual order, but that's about to change. As the weather grows colder, her love life heats up, and while fall turns to winter in the Big Apple, Victoria discovers that Mr. 8:15 could be exactly what she needs to shake things up.
