You Will Be Mine (Forever and Ever #7) By E. L. Todd

Trinity can't stand to see Skye broken and hurt. Nothing she says or does makes the situation better. Somehow, Skye seems to be getting worse with every passing day. Months blend together and time can't be distinguished.

When Trinity can't take it anymore, she wonders if keeping Skye's secret is the best decision. She knows Cayson must be hurting as much as Skye is. She starts to question everything, and even though she made a promise to her best friend to keep a secret, she doesn't think she can.

Will she tell Cayson the truth? And if she does, how will he react?
